Dear Jack,

Your unanswered letter did arrive. It is just that I have been too busy on too many things, inlcuding WHITEWASH II.

At the moment I have no need for the radio tapes. They will uddoubtedly be interesting. If you ever go through them the things that would most interest me are the full and very brief Oswald "press conference" of Firday night, expecially the "patsy" part and any statements by the doctors on the character of the wounds. Neither is important, from my approach; both are interesting.

I have no sound tape of the TV show. The editing was rough on me, rough in a jerky way, but the net effect of the show was good and informative.

We have the new book about ready. It needs editing but probably will not get it, at least for the first rpinting. I feel it cannot wait.

Please understand there are too few hours in the too-few days.

Sincerely

Harold Weisberg
